Live a Life of Faith — January 2026

From the Pastor

I hope your holidays have been joyous and not too tiring. The New Year will be upon us quicker than most of us can believe. Many folks use this time to look back in review and also to look forward. Often people look back and see only the goals that they didn't reach. Some make New Year's Resolutions with the hope (or is it wishful thinking...lol) that the upcoming year will be different. Diets will be kept. Books will be read. Times of prayer and devotions will become more regular. The New Year can be a time of hope...especially if the old year was one to forget.

The New Year also means that we have a few special days on the church calendar – Epiphany and Baptism of the Lord. Most of us know about Epiphany – the last day of the 12 Days of Christmas. In church, we celebrate the revealing of Jesus to the Gentiles, who the Wisemen represent. While some cultures make a big deal about Epiphany (which is when our Orthodox siblings celebrate Christmas), the Baptism of the Lord can get lost in the post-Christmas let down. You know, the “that was fun but I am glad it’s over” feeling! But this special day can be a chance to begin 2026 by recommitting ourselves to following Jesus and to becoming more like him.

This year, Baptism of the Lord is on January 11. One thing that I have done throughout my ministry is to include a Congregational Reaffirmation of Baptism (p50 in the UMH) on this Sunday. After the sermon you will be invited to join in reaffirming your baptismal vows, reaffirming your faith through the Creed and remembering the fact that you are baptized, even if you can't remember being baptized (as those of us baptized as babies cannot do).

A part of the Reaffirmation is the opportunity to come forward to the font and to use the water as a way of remembering that through baptism you know that God has claimed you as God's own, forgiven your sins and poured out the Holy Spirit on you. This remembrance, as well as recommitting yourself to the vows taken at your baptism (and affirmed at your confirmation), seems to me to be a great way to start the year. I hope you'll find it as meaningful as I have.

And as we move into the new year, let's remember these words of Paul: “I'm sure about this: the one who started a good work in you will stay with you to complete the job by the day of Christ Jesus.” (Phil. 1:6, CEB)

Happy New Year!

History Potluck, Friday, January 9

5:30 PM (Snow date – January 16) – Come join us as we share our memories here at Aldersgate United Methodist Church. This is an opportunity to honor God's work at Aldersgate throughout its history and to have fun as we remember, or hear for the first time, important parts of our story. Everyone present will be invited to share but no one will have to share. Some questions to get you thinking might include: What happened in the past that should be celebrated? What challenges did the church face? If you have any "memorabilia" from our past, please bring it along as a display table will be set up. If you know you will be attending, please sign up at the church but "walk-ins" are welcome. For the potluck, if your last name begins with A-L please bring a main/side dish. If your last name begins with M-Z please bring a dessert.

Conflict Transformation Skills for Churches

February 6 from 6:00 – 9:00 PM and February 7 from 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM (Snow dates of February 20/21)

Join us as Pastor Wilson will lead this workshop from the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center. Conflict can be found wherever there are individuals with their own opinions and ideas. Therefore, conflict is a given in the church, even a church as faithful as ours. As some of you know, Pastor Wilson spent several years coaching and consulting with leaders and churches (in addition to serving as a pastor). This workshop was one that he used often with churches and on the district level.

The goal of our time together will be to begin to look at conflict as potentially creative and uniting as opposed to destructive and dividing. We will learn a common language to use around conflict as well as some basic tools to use when we face conflict as individuals and as a church! There will be a fee for the materials, but scholarships will be available for those who need them. Registration materials will be available in early January.

Weekly Communion

Starting January 4th at 9:30 Service

As previously announced, the Worship Committee decided to have Holy Communion celebrated weekly at the Contemporary Service. Weekly communion has a long history in the church (dating back to Biblical times) and in the Methodist Movement (going back to John Wesley himself). Currently the United Methodist Church encourages celebrating Holy Communion each Sunday and the number of churches that do so has grown in recent years. With the change, it was also decided to go back to the pre-COVID method of taking communion by "intinction." As you come forward you will be given a piece of bread from the loaf which you will dip into the chalice. You also have the option of only taking the bread. For those with gluten issues, a pre-packaged gluten free wafer and juice will be available. After receiving communion, you may return to your seat or go to the altar rail to pray.

Some people are excited about the return to weekly communion while others may be less so. For those who would prefer not to have communion weekly there are a few options. You can stay in your seat, or you can come forward to receive a blessing instead of taking communion. When you come forward, please leave your hands down at your side or cross your arms on your chest so that the pastor will know to not give you a piece of bread.

Reading Circle Book for January

Join the Reading Circle on Thursday, January 8 at 1:30 PM in the church library when we will discuss The Secret Gift by Ted Gup. We have multiple copies of the book; contact Maureen Whalen at whalenmt.7976@gmail.com if you are interested or for more information. All are welcome.

The Secret Gift by Ted Gup (Non-Fiction) is an inspiring account of America at its worst-and Americans at their best — woven from the stories of Depression-era families who were helped by gifts from the author's generous and secretive grandfather. Shortly before Christmas 1933 in Depression-scarred Canton, Ohio, a small newspaper ad offered $10, no strings attached, to 75 families in distress. Interested readers were asked to submit letters describing their hardships to a benefactor calling himself Mr. B. Virdot. The author's grandfather, Sam Stone, was inspired to place this ad and assist his fellow Cantonians as they prepared for the cruelest Christmas most of them would ever witness. Moved by the tales of suffering and expressions of hope contained in the letters, which he discovered in a suitcase 75 years later, Ted Gup initially set out to unveil the lives behind them, searching for records and relatives all over the country who could help him flesh out the family sagas hinted at in those letters. From these sources, Gup has re-created the impact that Mr. B. Virdot's gift had on each family. But as he uncovered the suffering and triumphs of dozens of strangers, Gup also learned that Sam Stone was far more complex than the lovable-retiree persona he'd always shown his grandson. Gup unearths deeply buried details about Sam's life. Drawing on his unique find and his award-winning reportorial gifts, Ted Gup solves a singular family mystery even while he pulls away the veil of eight decades that separate us from the hardships that united America during the Depression. 365pp.

Come With Me Into the Fields

"Your arms may grow weary. Your shoes will wear thin. Come with me into the fields."

The other day, as I closed my son's door after leaving Damian back at home, I have to admit I breathed a big sigh of relief — well sort of relief. The grandkids are back home and life can go back to "normal." And I felt the same way when the last piece was placed on the Harvest altar, and especially when it was off the altar, into the Open Door Mission's truck. And I'm sure that Mary and her kitchen crew feel the same at the end of a Community Dinner and Rhonda at the end of Sunday School, or especially VBS!

By Tuesday or Wednesday, though, I'm missing them and looking forward to them coming on Saturday. And I'm sure that those women and their groups of volunteers would say the same.

The verse above is not scripture, exactly. It's from a song I learned as a teenager. Another part of the song quotes Matthew 9:37 "The harvest is plenty but laborers are few." That scripture goes on with Jesus telling the disciples to pray for more workers. Well, I think that we are those workers.

We're about to celebrate New Year's, a time when we make new commitments, including to do more for God and His church. And both Rhonda and Mary, and others, have expressed the need for more helpers. I'm going to keep it real, though; doing the Lord's most important work — feeding the hungry, teaching and caring for children, visiting the sick and preparing the altar, can be physically and mentally taxing work. It is also some of the most rewarding work you will ever do!

So, I thoroughly encourage you to do more work for the Lord in 2026! Indeed, your arms may grow weary, your shoes will wear thin and, like the Grinch (or Ebenezer Scrooge if you prefer the classics), your heart will grow 3 sizes bigger too!

New Year's Blessings,

Worship Committee

Worship Committee is responsible for supporting and assisting our Lead Pastor in planning and executing our worship services, its environment and contents. We foster worship by communicating with leadership and identifying resources for enhancing worship that praises and worships God. Through meaningful worship, we encourage believers, and engage unbelievers and searching believers.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all who have contributed to our worship experience at Aldersgate in 2025. We are blessed with dedicated volunteers. I want to specifically mention the members of our committee: Nancy Young (Acolyte coordinator, Usher coordinator for 11:00 service, Funeral/Memorial Service coordinator), Terry Young (11:00 usher coordinator, Funeral/Memorial Service coordinator), Sharon Bartter (Altar Guild Coordinator), Ted Carstens (A/V Scheduler), Juan Ruiz (Live Streaming coordinator, A/V training and troubleshooting), Betty Judd (Communion Coordinator), Cindy and Dave Roza (Acting Coffee Hour Coordinators), Karen Rice (9:30 Greeter, Scripture Reader coordinator 9:30 and 11:00 services), Jennifer Crandall (11:00 service coordinator), Debbie Simm (Nursery Coordinator), Maureen Whalen (Slides), Susan DeVincentis (9:30 service usher coordinator), Savannah Norton (Chancel Choir Director), Dr. Brandon Kelley (Contemporary Service Music Director), and Rev. Dr. Wilson Jones (Lead Pastor). Pastor Wilson joined us in July when he was appointed to Aldersgate and has blessed us with his enthusiasm and ideas. We thank everyone for all they do!

Bobbi Mohrmann, Worship Committee Chair

Can You Help on Sunday Mornings?

Worship is how we praise and celebrate our God through the word, scripture, music, prayer, communion and so much more. Currently we have several areas where we could use more support. If everyone would help 3 or 4 time a year, as able, it would make a huge difference. Orientation and/or training are provided for some areas. Pastor Wilson and Bobbi Mohrmann (Worship Committee chair) are available for any questions or information. Thank you for prayerfully considering these requests.
