Live a Life of Faith — MARCH 2026

From the Pastor

I am writing from my room at Mount Savior Monetary, in Big Flats, NY. I sometimes feel sorry for churches I serve when I come here because I tend to hear God saying the darnedest things. One of the traditions here is for a brother to read while the rest of the community is eating the midday meal. Yesterday, the reading was from a book titled: "Ruth Burrows Essential Readings." In the introduction to the book, the editor wrote of how Ruth spoke about accepting Jesus "Just as He is." It is then that Jesus can unite Himself with us and transform us to be more like Him.

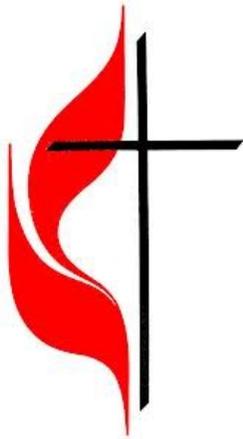

For a Baptist boy, I was used to the idea of Jesus accepting us just as we are. I can still hear the old hymn being sung during altar calls: "Just as I am without one plea but that Thy blood was shed for me." And I believe Jesus accepts us as we are. There is no minimum amount of holiness we need to attain before He says: "Welcome to the club." We don't get things in order and then hear Jesus say: "Jump on in, the water's great." We turn to Jesus in repentance, seeking forgiveness and we find our Lord there with open arms. Now there is the matter of how, as a friend of mine puts it: "Jesus accepts us as we are, but loves us too much to let us stay that way." But that can wait for another time.

So what of this "accepting Jesus just as He is"? I should probably read the book to see what Ruth Burrows had to say but the idea is new enough, counter-intuitive enough that it stuck in my head. And so I figured: "Why should I wrestle with this alone? I have a church full of folks that I can dump this on and at least I will have company laying awake at night wondering what she meant."

And I do have some thoughts. It is true in every age that folks are much more comfortable with a Jesus that looks and thinks like them. But I think it is also true that you and I like to make Jesus in our image. For folks who are extremely patriotic it is easy to think that Jesus has a special place in His heart for America (What has been labeled Christian Nationalism.) For folks who need boundaries and prefer a strict set of rules, it is easy to see Jesus as one with little tolerance for sinful behavior. For folks who prefer to live and let live, it is easy to see Jesus as one who asked nothing of anybody. Of course these are all extreme, but I hope you see what I am wondering.

So; without researching what Ruth Burrows meant; here is my first attempt: "Accepting Jesus as He is means we least likely think He would be like. Which also means we see Him in the person least like us." I am gonna sit with that for a while and home it doesn't keep me up at night. But I have a feeling it just might.

Volunteer Help Needed at Next Craft Workshop! (March 7 & 8)

Our next fundraising craft workshop is on Friday, March 6 and Saturday, March 7. Sue Galligan will need help to host this event, as Karen will be out of town.

Specifically, she needs help:

- Setting up tables and chairs either late on Thursday (after whatever sports team is done practicing that night) or early on Friday.
- Welcoming crafters as they arrive on both days and directing them to their tables.
- Making and serving dinner on Friday, as well as the cleanup afterward.
- Making and serving both breakfast and lunch on Saturday, as well as the cleanup afterward.
- Final cleanup and putting tables away Saturday night after the crafters leave. (This usually starts around 8:00.)

Food donations are also very welcome — such as desserts, snacks, and parts of meals. Check with Sue to see what is needed for which day (317-3138).

Friday goes from 12:30—9:00 PM and Saturday goes from 9:00 AM—9:00 PM. We welcome anyone working on their latest crafty projects — scrapbooks, card making, sewing, painting, needlework or anything else. Thanks for your help with this important church fundraiser.

Good Friday Prayer Vigil

A Time for Prayer and Reflection

This Good Friday, April, 3rd, we warmly invite you to pause and spend time in our sanctuary considering the significance and meaning of this solemn day. Our church sanctuary will be open from noon until 3pm for you to spend time quietly considering Jesus' deep love and sacrifice for us.

Once inside the sanctuary, you will find a guide offering scripture selections and hymns for reflection.

There will also be two baskets – one for any prayer requests you might wish to leave, and an opportunity for you to pick up others' prayer requests – offering a time for intercessory prayer.

This vigil is designed to be a “come-as-you-are” experience. You may choose to stay for just a short time, or the entire three hours. We hope this vigil will deepen your faith and help prepare your heart for the joy of Easter.

Reading with Miss Rhonda:

March Book of the Month:
St. Patrick the Forgiver
by Ned J Bustard

The History and Legends of Ireland's Bishop

*Hello, my name is Patrick.
You may have heard my story.
I walked the span of Ireland
to tell of God's great glory.
And with a wee green shamrock
I shared of the Three-in-One:
our God the blessed mystery
Father, Spirit, and the Son.*

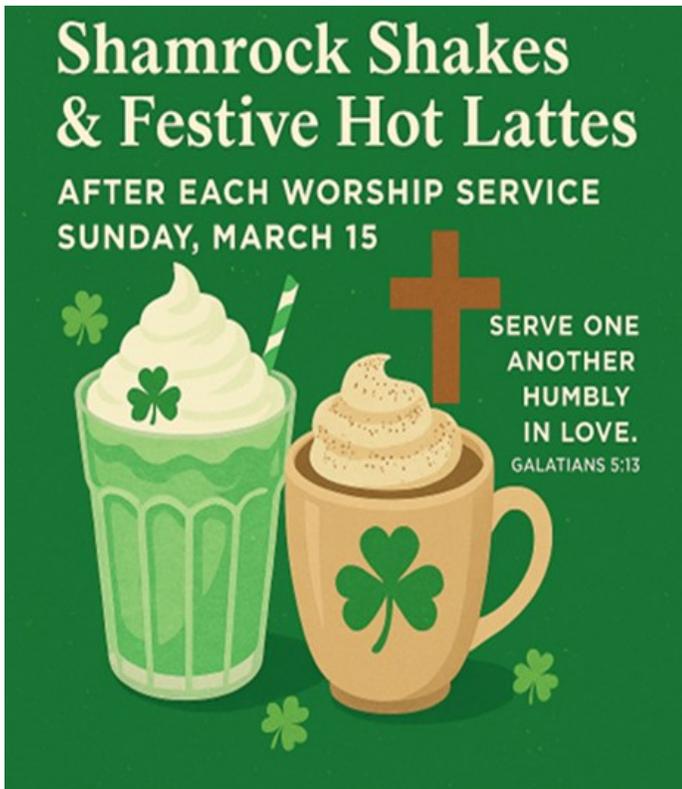

Everybody's Irish on Saint Patrick's Day. But did you know that Patrick, the greatest bishop of Ireland Wasn't Irish? Combining Patrick's words from his Confessions with a few of the legends about him, this whimsical retelling will teach families about the fascinating life of the real Saint Patrick and help them discover a remarkable story of love and forgiveness along the way. Reading Circle Book for March

Join the Reading Circle on Thursday, March 12 at 1:30 pm in the church library when we will be discussing Gift from the Sea by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. We have multiple copies of the book; contact Maureen Whalen at whalenmt.7976@gmail.com or call her at 581-9164 if you are interested or for more information. All are welcome.

Drawing inspiration from the shells on the shore, Lindbergh's musings on the shape of a woman's life will bring new understanding to readers, male and female, at any stage of life. A mother of five and professional writer, she casts an unsentimental eye at the trappings of modern life that threaten to overwhelm us—the timesaving gadgets that complicate our lives, the over-commitments that take us from our families.

With great wisdom and insight she describes the shifting shapes of relationships and marriage, presenting a vision of a life lived in enduring and evolving partnership. A groundbreaking work when it was first published in 1955, this book has retained its freshness as it has been rediscovered by generations of readers and is no less current today.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES

Holy Week

Holy Week will be here before you know it. Here is a schedule and brief summary of each service:

March 29: Palm/Passion Sunday 9:30 and 11 AM – Both services will begin in the gathering space and process in with our palms as we “relive” the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. The second part of the service will be focused on the death of Jesus as we encounter a creative presentation of one of the Passion narratives.

April 2 – Holy (Maundy) Thursday 7 PM – Join us as we listen to Jesus give us a “new commandment” from John’s Gospel, commemorate the institution of the Holy Communion at the Last Supper, and end the evening in silence as we strip the altar in preparation for Good Friday.

April 3 (Good Friday) – Prayer Vigil 12-3 PM – See details elsewhere in this edition of the Hinge.

Good Friday 7 PM – This service will be time of focusing on the death of Jesus on the cross and will include some (hopefully) meaningful elements including a Meditation at the Cross and a form of the Reproaches, a traditional liturgy dating back to the 7th century.

March 5 – Easter Sunday – 9:30 and 11 AM – Join us in joyful worship as we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. There will be an Easter Egg hunt for the children in between services. Holy Communion will be celebrated at both services.

NEITHER JEW NOR GREEK

Galatians 3:28 "There is no longer Jew nor Greek... for you are all one in Christ."

As I'm writing this, we're about to enter into a time that I so look forward to every time it comes around. I'm referring to The Olympic Games!

I was, due to my brain injury, forbidden from playing traditional "team" sports. So; other than Baseball, I'm not really a "team" sports fan. But- while I have no real ability in any Olympic sports either- I love watching gifted athletes who, while they may have up to a dozen opponents, their only "real" opponent at that moment is the clock, the "measuring tape" or how well they performed their particular sport at that given moment.

There is an even more important facet to The Olympics, though. It's the graciousness and comradery. Yes; there have been some exceptions, but, for the most part athletes- even from countries still at war, or with a very tentative peace often walk near each other during the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and compete near each other in their sporting events. Likewise, citizens of these countries, sit in the spectator areas, near each other, supporting these athletes. And they, both athlete and spectator alike, do so respectfully, even cordially. For that moment, their minds are not on the battlefield or their political ideologies, they're on the playing field and their/their nation's chance to be on it!

We, too, as Christians, are supposed to be that gracious and cordial. After all; we share something much more important than sports. We share a risen Savior and a promise of eternal life- Eternal Life Together! I've heard it said that life on earth, for Christians, should be practice for Heaven. So, let's practice not only surrendering to and worshipping God but, in response to the Grace of God- given to us all- loving all of God's people, no matter our differences. Basically: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." (Matthew 7:12.) By Sharon Bartter

UMCOR SUNDAY

On March 15th we will celebrate UMCOR Sunday. The UMCOR Sunday (United Methodist Committee on Relief) offering underwrites UMCOR's administrative costs. This allows UMCOR to use 100% of all funds given to humanitarian response and recovery efforts directly to communities in need. These gifts ensure UMCOR can respond swiftly to disasters around the world and be a source of hope and healing to those left most vulnerable.

By investing in UMCOR's operations, we empower the church to mobilize resources quickly and efficiently making a meaningful impact in communities impacted by disaster and hardship around the world. This ministry is achieved exclusively through your generosity. The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) , our denominations' hands and feet in times of crisis, is a beacon of hope. UMCOR volunteers and partners step into crisis and loss bringing practical aide and compassionate presence.

Hopefully you can join us at our in-person worship service that day when special offering envelopes will be provided. Give online using our site: give.aumcgreece.org or, as you consider sending in your remote donations to Aldersgate UMC, please include a donation for this special offering. Feel free to make your donations anytime in March, being sure to include the notation for "UMCOR Sunday."

Thank You in advance for your generous support;
