Matthew 22:37-39

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

The Monday night small group has just started the study “Live like You were Dying.” We did this study several years ago as a whole church. I am finding it a good reminder.

We should thank God for every day we are given and make the most of the time we are given by living each day to the fullest. That means focusing ourselves on living according to God’s plan. Jesus clearly defines God’s plan in Matthew 22:37-39 when he affirms the greatest commandment. Jesus said, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

Our greatest priority is to love God with our whole being. Are we seeking to love God more each day? Are we spending time in prayer and studying God’s word in the Bible so we can know him more deeply? To know God is to love God.

Our second priority is to love others. How well are we doing that? The song that the study is based on suggests that we can do this in part by speaking sweeter, watching what we say and how we say it and by giving forgiveness, letting go of old hurts and where possible healing broken relationships. How well are we doing these things?

It’s my prayer that we will each take time to reflect on these questions, adjust our priorities and continually grow to love God and others more.

God’s blessings,
Pastor Anne

Red Bird Mission Crafts Returning Saturday, July 16

Aldersgate United Methodist Women is again sponsoring a Red Bird Mission Crafts Show in the Ide Center this summer. The craft program at Red Bird Mission is an economic development ministry providing a sales outlet for talented mountain craftspeople. This is a win-win sale. We have a chance to purchase unusual gifts and items for our homes and to support an important ministry in Eastern Kentucky.

Tell your friends about the sale or bring them with you. The sale will be open to the public on Saturday from 9:00 AM –2:00 PM. The UMW will hold a Bake Sale throughout the open sale and provide a light lunch of hot dogs or meatball sandwiches, soup, snacks, and beverages for purchase by shoppers from 11:00 AM until 1:30 PM. The crafts will again be available for sale between services and for a short time after the second service. All proceeds will go to the Red Bird Mission Crafts program.

Plan Ahead: Crafts & Collectibles Show Set for October 14 & 15

Brochures will soon be sent out to potential vendors at our ninth annual Crafts & Collectibles Show. If you know someone who should be added to our mailing list, please contact Gretchen Hughes (865-2822 or fghughes76@frontiernet.net) or Candy Metzger in the church office. We are looking for vendors of handcrafted items, fine quality gift items, or antiques/collectibles. Funds raised from this event support the mission of the UMW and the church mission committee.

Reading Circle

When Oklahoma passes a law making it a felony to harbor an undocumented immigrant, a devout churchgoing man gets sent to prison when he is caught harboring a barnful of migrant workers. The situation throws his family, his church, his community, and some members of the legislature into complicated, heartbreaking, and sometimes hilarious turmoil in Kind of Kin, a novel by Rilla Askew. This book from the UMW Reading List is the selection for the Thursday, June 2, meeting of Reading Circle in the Church Library at 1:00 PM.

Copies of the book are available in the library. Visitors and newcomers are welcome to join the discussion. If you have questions, call Jane Salminen at 544-1703.

Mission U Offers Learning, Spiritual Growth & Fellowship

Asbury Camp and Retreat Center will once again host Mission u for Region 3 of the Upper New York Conference United Methodist Women and United Methodist Church on July 21-23.

The social action study for this year is “Climate Justice: Call to Hope and Action” taught by the Rev. Dana Horrell; and the spiritual growth study is “The Bible and Human Sexuality” taught by Glory E. Dharmaraj. Books will be available there, but it is advisable to purchase them in advance online at www.umwmissionresources.org.

The residential cost for the three-day study retreat is $235 which includes registration, room, and eight meals. The One Day Sampler on Saturday is $45, which includes a continental breakfast and lunch. Registrations are due by July 9, 2016. Copies of the registration form are available on the Mission Counter in the Gathering Area.

Mission u is open to both men and women. It’s a great time for spiritual growth through study, worship, learning and fellowship together. Join us this year.

Focus of Sew ‘N Sew’s Shifts to UMCOR Kits

The United Methodist Committee on Relief collects a variety of kits for teaching and disaster relief, but the most needed—School Kits, Health Kits, and Layette Kits—are the ones that Aldersgate UMW works on. Of the supplies needed, the Sew ‘n Sew’s group is able to make the school bags for the School Kits; and baby sweaters, baby gowns, receiving blankets, and baby washcloths for the layettes. While other projects will continue, much of the next four months the group will concentrate on these items in preparation for the UMW Kit Assembly meeting in September.

If you enjoy needlecrafts (or think you might), come to Sew ‘n Sew’s on Monday, June 13, at 1:00 in Room 1 (downstairs). For questions, call Betty Hild at 663-5032.

Annual Rummage Sale Upon Us!

There are just a few days left to clear out all that extra “stuff” you’ve accumulated over the years and get it to our great annual “recycling” event – the Rummage Sale coming up on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, June 9, 10, & 11. Now is the time to clear out cupboards, closets, sheds and basements. Don’t forget to look for items that may just be sitting around in plain sight not being used. Don’t wait until June 7 and wish you had done more!

Please try to bring your donations no later than noon on Wednesday, June 8 so we can finish setting up by the end of that afternoon. We are looking for clean clothes in good condition, books, games, dishes and pans, household linens and accessories, toys, furniture, tools, etc. We are often surprised at what does and what doesn’t sell.

Please bring only items that are clean and appliances that are in working order and bring them in through the north doors of the Ide Center during the day. Keep in mind that we do not take hideabeds, bowling balls or ski equipment.

If you need help with larger items, please call Gretchen Hughes (865-2822) by May 31. She will try to make arrangements for pickup. If any of you have trailers, vans, or trucks and could help with pickup, please let her know, also.

The hours of the sale are as follows: Thursday and Friday from 9:00 AM – 6:00 PM, and Saturday (the Bag Sale) from 9:00 AM – Noon.

We need your help sorting and pricing the incoming donations and staffing each day of the sale. We’ll be working from 9:00 AM till 4:00 PM every day except Sunday. The sign-up sheet has morning and afternoon shifts, but come even if you only have an hour or two to help. We never seem to run out of work. Please note that on Monday and Tuesday, June 6 & 7, we will have evening work hours from 6:30 – 9:00 PM if some of you sign up in advance. (Go early to Applebee’s!)

People are needed to come in promptly at noon on Saturday to help clean up. We will pack up the clothing to take to the St. Pauly’s collection box at Greece UMC to benefit our next Greece Habitat project. We need those of you with pickups and vans again to help take the rest of the leftover items to the Goodwill Store. We’d like to be cleared out by 1:30 PM to make way for the wedding reception later that afternoon.

We also need your fine baked goods. Our bake sales have become a significant “profit center” with regular customers! The sign-up sheet has space for fresh goods Thursday and Friday. Pies, cakes, cookies, brownies, fudge, cupcakes, breads, and homemade candy all sell well. We sell goodies like cookies and brownies packaged by the dozen, half-dozen, or pairs. Please label your baked goods so that we know what kind of cookies, etc. we are selling and whether or not the recipe includes nuts. If you can deliver your baked goods to the church kitchen Wednesday night or early Thursday or Friday we will have the widest opportunity to sell them.

Where does the money go? Half is used to support the mission projects of the UMW. Not only do we support national and international mission work through out annual Pledge to Mission, we also donate to a number of local ministries, such as Mission Share, Greece Food Shelf, and our church Christmas White Gifts program. The other half this year will be split between the Aldersgate Building Fund and redecorating the parlor.

Get on board! The Rummage Sale is a lot of work, but it’s also a lot of fun and a great way to get acquainted. See you there!

Dear Sally Stewardship

Dear Sally,

Several times in recent months I've seen John Haldane's name mentioned in the information that came out on the Greater Things campaign, saying he left Aldersgate $50,000 in his will. I doubt that I'll have that much to leave and whether it will be worth taking the trouble, but I thought I'd ask.

Just a Thought

Dear Thinking,

You've seen John's name so much lately because the money became available at a particularly critical time—another example of God providing. John was still with us when we were planning to build. He had always been a faithful giver. However, because he was reaching a point in life when he was going to need additional care, he really didn't feel able to give what he'd like to the church or the capital campaign being conducted at that time. Instead he directed through his will that money remaining after his final expenses were paid be given to Aldersgate. I suspect he would have been very surprised at the amount – as we were. And we were very happy that he had the thoughtfulness to make provision for this very special gift. That portion of the debt his funds were used to pay represents a permanent gift.

Gifts do not need to be large. Our Aldersgate Endowment Fund was started with (I think) $3,000 left by an older choir member. There was no major project at the time. Rather than see the money “disappear” into paying current expenses, the Administrative Board (today the Church Council) decided to set up the Endowment Fund. While we don't emphasize it much with the focus on paying off debt, the Endowment Fund has received additional gifts and, while still small, has provided important resources from time to time. Another such legacy designated for “Handicapped Access” was a consistent prod to us while we were still living with the “split-level” original facilities and was the beginning of the funds for the elevator.

What to do if you want to be remembered and continue to do “greater things” after you are gone? Yes, you can include Aldersgate in your will for a specific amount or for a percentage of your remaining assets. (And, yes, you need to make out a will if you haven't already done so.) But there are other options such as naming Aldersgate as a beneficiary on a bank account, retirement account, or a life insurance policy. These latter methods can be done simply by filling out and returning a change of beneficiary form.

These are not decisions you make lightly, but it's one you can make as part of a life committed to making the resources God has given you do its best work. You may want to talk with our pastors and most certainly with your lawyer or financial advisor about the best way to do it. Your ability to make a difference in the lives touched by our church does not have to end!

May God Bless Your Commitment,

Sally Stewardship

Second-Quarter Food Drive Set

Families whose children normally get free/reduced price lunches at school struggle to put enough food on the table for three meals in the summer. Many seniors have difficulty making their pension/social security checks last the whole month. People who are no longer eligible for unemployment assistance but yet don't have jobs need help. These are just three of the situations encountered by those who seek help at the Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf in the summer.

Our next major Food for Friends Drive is scheduled for June 19. Grocery bags will be distributed the Sunday before to remind you to make an extra effort. Among the items suggested are the following: canned fruit and fruit juice, canned meat and vegetables, soup, peanut butter, jelly, spaghetti sauce, large boxed mashed potatoes, ramen noodles, pudding, Jell-O, boxed cake and cookie mixes, macaroni and cheese are all important to our neighbors who are having a hard time putting food on the table for their families.

Money donations help the Food Shelf buy fresh food like meat, milk, and bread. If you prefer, you may write a check to Aldersgate UMC designated for "Greece Food Shelf" or put cash in an envelope so marked. If we all make the effort to bring a bag of groceries or make an extra donation, we will make a big difference in the lives of our neighbors.

Return Baby Bottles on Father's Day

Baby bottles you picked up at the Mother- Daughter Banquet or after should be returned on June 19 filled with the change you collected for Crossroads Pregnancy Care, a service offered by Mission: Share. There will be a basket on the Ushers' Table just inside the door of the sanctuary in which to place them. Your support will be very much appreciated by the mothers and babies who receive Crossroads services.
