I recently read something written by Karoline Lewis that intrigued me. The title was, Choose Your Lent. She went on to suggest "Your starting point matters. You can suffer through Lent. Or, you can choose to move through Lent from a place of wonder and gratitude: wondering where God might show up, what God might reveal in this dormant time, this time set aside so as to anticipate life, a time that looks forward to glimpses of the new creation." (Internet article, Feb. 4, 2016)

Lent is the 40-day period (which excludes Sundays) of preparation for the celebration of the Lord's resurrection. It's generally a somber time of examining our lives and doing what we can to learn to live more faithfully. Many people give things up for Lent to experience in some small way solidarity with Jesus' sacrificial death. There's nothing wrong with that, but I think, as Karoline Lewis suggests, that our attitude in approaching this makes a difference. We can look at Lent as an opportunity to grow closer to God in Christ or we can see it as something to endure. I choose to see it as opportunity.

Our opportunity begins March 1, to come together for an Ash Wednesday worship service at 7 PM. Worship each Sunday will focus on one what Steve Harper identifies as Marks of a Methodist. These are based on a sermon John Wesley, the father of Methodism, wrote in 1742, called The Character of a Methodist. Each mark is a practice that when followed will help us live a righteous life filled with goodness, peace, and joy. We have an opportunity to explore loving God, rejoicing in God, giving thanks, praying constantly, and loving others.

I'm excited about a new opportunity being offered on Wednesday evenings at 7 PM starting March 8. Lisa Deutsch will lead a 6-week study on Prayer (see p. 3). Also, on March 25 we will hold our first session of Aldersgate U from 9 – 11:20 AM. During that time three Discipleship Discussions will be offered. Anyone interested in joining Aldersgate should plan to attend these sessions, but everyone is welcome. See more details on p. 7. Two more sessions of Aldersgate U covering 3 additional Discipleship Discussions each will be held April 8 and April 29. If you are interested in joining the church but unable to attend these sessions, please see me and we'll try to work something out.

Please join us for Moving Forward Saturday, March 18 from 9-11:30 AM (see p. 3). We'd like everyone to be a part of helping us discern where God is leading us as a church. What is our next ministry experiment? Our Community Dinner came out of our last meeting like this. What a blessing it has been for us and our community.

I pray you'll choose to move through Lent with a sense of wonder and gratitude and take part in the opportunities for worship and study.

Blessings,
Pastor Anne

Parish Visitations

Call the church when someone enters the hospital or is discharged or if you, or someone you know, desire a pastoral call. This will help provide better pastoral care and avoid unnecessary trips. Arrangements for the Sacrament of Holy Communion are encouraged. Both pastors and the lay visitation ministers visit regularly and would be happy to include others in the visitation schedule.

Church Events & Opportunities

Lenten Prayer Study Begins March 8

Come join us as we begin a 6-week prayer journey during Lent to discover the secrets of effective prayer. Maxie Dunham's "The Workbook of Intercessory Prayer" will serve as our guide. We plan to meet on Wednesday nights at 7:00 PM (or earlier if that would work better for your schedules). You will be asked to give 20 - 30 minutes each day to read about prayer (usually 1 - 2 pages) and record your thoughts. The weekly meetings will focus on sharing experiences as we progress through the material. Topics include Keys for Effective Intercession and How to Overcome Hurdles to effective prayer. The first meeting on March 8th at 7:00 PM will be at the church in the Parlor. Subsequent meetings can take place either in participants' homes or at church, whichever the group prefers.

Please Join Us for "Moving Forward Saturday – Where Is God Leading Us?"

Daylight Savings begins on Sunday, March 12. This is a day that we all turn our clocks ahead one hour as we begin to get more and more daylight after a long winter. On Saturday, March 18, Aldersgate's Church Council is sponsoring an event called "Moving Forward Saturday – Where is God Leading Us?" The purpose of this short morning session will be to brainstorm ideas of how our church can move ahead with new missions or programs in order to continue to transform lives and bring people to God. We'll be using topics suggested on the Greater Things vision cards to begin the brainstorming session – but all ideas will be welcome! Here are the details:

Date: Saturday, March 18

Time: 9:00 - 11:30 am

Location: AUMC Ide Center

Starting Topics:

- Attracting more Teens and Young adults/families to church
- Encouraging greater diversity
- Engaging in partnership(s) with Lake UMC
- Helping those in Need

Coffee/Tea/Water/treats and Childcare will be provided! The only thing we need from YOU are IDEAS! Plan on joining us for this exciting morning.

Together in His Footsteps –

Family Devotions and Activities for Lent

Pick up your Lenten Devotional in the gathering space.

Bring the whole family along as you travel your Lenten journey with Jesus! Fun and enriching activities, family-centered reflections and prayers remind children and adults of the importance of deepening their spiritual life during Lent. Spending time together as a family, especially time together in prayer, is vitally important in today's culture. Together in His Footsteps can serve as a powerful tool to keep adults and children centered in their faith and to emphasize our rich and beautiful Lenten traditions. Well-known author Michelle Van Loon engages readers and encourages them to put their faith into action, fostering a habit that can last a lifetime.

Come Walk this Year's Crop Walk!

Sunday, May 7th is the date for this year's Crop Walk. Messiah Lutheran Church at the corner of Mt. Read and English Road will be the host church this year. The registration will be at 1:30 and the walk will start at 2:00. This year will offer a choice of the traditional route, plus a 5K and the Golden Mile. In case of inclement weather, we will be able to walk in Messiah's Fellowship Hall. This is a wonderful fundraiser to help combat hunger locally and worldwide. It is held under the auspices of Church World Service and 25% of the funds raised will go to The Greece Food Shelf and the remainder to help worldwide projects. Aldersgate will serve as a rest stop on the route as well as Bethany Presbyterian. If you can't walk, you can sign up to help with the snack table at Aldersgate. For the past few years our leadership team has included Aldersgate, Trinity Episcopal and Messiah. Our theme last year and this year is "Walking as One."

Please join us in this important walk. The sign-up sheet is on the opportunities board and sponsor envelopes are available from the church office. Any questions may be sent to Joyce Farrokh at efarrokh@rochester.rr.com.

Aldersgate United Methodist Women

Coffee Connection Founder to Speak at General Meeting

Joy Bergfalk, the founder of Coffee Connection, was recently awarded Rochester Women's Network "W" award. She started Coffee Connection in 2011 to help women recovering from drug addiction, trauma, and homelessness by providing training, employment and support on their road to a lasting recovery by selling fair trade, organic coffee to retail and wholesale customers. The location of the first store is on South Avenue and another one is on East Main Street. A third location, Cannonball Café located on Lake Avenue, recently closed. Ms. Bergfalk will speak both to the need for resources like those Coffee Connection provides and to her experiences.

This General Meeting of Aldersgate United Methodist Women will be held on Thursday, March 30, in the Ide Center with a light supper (usually soup, salad, and dessert) served at 6:15 PM. The program will immediately follow the supper.

After a break (to give the speaker a chance to leave if she wishes), we will hold a short business meeting and take up our Thank Offering for the year. Pledge to Mission cards will also be available for those who haven't yet pledged. Everyone interested in the topic is welcome to attend. Cost for the supper is just $5.00, payable at the door. Please sign up on the Opportunity Board so we have a place set for you.

Morning Circle

Climate Justice, a current 2016-2018 Mission Study for UMW, will be the topic at the next meeting of Morning Circle at 11:00 on Tuesday, March 21, in the Parlor. Among other issues, the study focuses on the disproportionate effect of climate change on the poor all around the world. If you wish, bring a sandwich or yogurt for lunch. Hostesses provide dessert and beverages. Everyone interested is welcome.

Reading Circle

At its next meeting in the library at 1:00 PM on Thursday, March 2, Bobbie Eckert will lead the Reading Circle in a discussion of the novel Emerald Windows by Terri Blackstock. The story examines the impact of malicious gossip on two talented young people hired to create a series of stained glass windows for an historic church in a small town. Copies of the book are available in the Church

Library in the UMW section. Please sign the book out on the clipboard.

Newcomers and visitors are always welcome. Light refreshments are served each month. If you have any questions, please call Jane Salminen at 544-1703.

Join in a Global Celebration

Church Women United in Rochester & Vicinity invites you to attend their annual World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 3, at The Brickstone at St. John's Meadow, 1325 Elmwood Avenue, Rochester. The group will begin gathering at 10:00 AM with the program beginning at 10:30 AM. The host country for the World Day of Prayer 2017 is the Philippines. The biblical text chosen is Matthew 20:1-16, the parable of the laborers in the vineyard.

World Day of Prayer is a worldwide ecumenical movement of Christian women of many traditions who come together to observe a common day of prayer each year on the first Friday in March. World Day of prayer was founded on the idea that prayer and action are inseparable in the service of God's kingdom. Services begin at sunrise in the Pacific and follow the sun across the globe on the day of celebration. Each year a different country's committee serves as the writers of the World Day of Prayer worship service. The offering supports the work of World Day of Prayer USA and helps meet the needs of families in the Philippines and around the world who are victims of many forms of poverty, violence, and injustice.

Refreshments and informal conversation will follow the service. No reservation or registration fee is required. Please bring a non-perishable food item for the Community Cupboard of Rochester. Sign up on the Opportunities Board if you wish to carpool. All women of the church are

Lenten Offering for Greece Habitat Project

This year's special Lenten Offering is again designated for the Greece Churches Habitat for Humanity Coalition, which is now raising funds to build their seventh house. They already have 22% of the needed funds on hand. On March 5, the first Sunday in Lent, the ushers will distribute small cans in which you can place your spare change throughout Lent to help move forward the important work of building another home in the city. Each time you drop in a contribution, please take the time to pray for those working on Habitat homes and for those preparing to be the future homeowners. The filled coin cans, while not costing us much at any one time, can add up to a tidy contribution from all of us together toward the goal of raising another $65,000 for that house. Please return the filled cans to church on Easter Sunday. Your every gift will be appreciated.

Food for Friends

The Missions Committee has chosen Sunday, March 19, for our first quarter special emphasis on bringing in non-perishable food products for the Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf. This important emergency service needs a regular supply of the following items: cereal (both hot and cold); rice (1 or 2 lb. pkgs.); Ramen noodles; pudding; Jello; juice; canned pasta; pasta (dry); spaghetti sauce; hash, chili or stew; pork'n beans; canned meat or fish; tuna fish; peanut butter; instant mashed potatoes; soups; jelly or jam; canned vegetables; cake mixes; canned fruit; toilet paper; dish detergent; bar soap; shampoo; toothpaste; deodorant; paper towels; and laundry soap. The ushers will distribute grocery bags the Sunday before as a reminder.

Marilyn Sobus, who delivers our donations to the Food Shelf, reported to the Missions Committee that Aldersgate donated a total of 1,549 lbs. of food in 2016. Let's see if we can do even better in 2017!

Community Dinner Year-End News

While Mary Sims, the coordinator of the Free Community Dinner, says that "the Community Dinner is not about numbers...but it is nice to know how many people we have reached..." In 2016 dinner was served to 2,329 people by 329 volunteers (plus others that did not sign in). The total cost was $3,088.05, and the contributions from the dinners was $3,380.04. Thanks to additional monthly donations of food from the Open Door Mission, they were able to feed everyone for just $1.35 per person. The group is also grateful for the donations this year of a cooler and a warmer that help the workers keep food at appropriate temperatures for safety.

Mark the last Saturday in the month to attend this outstanding outreach effort. Don't feel uncomfortable because you don't feel you need a "free" dinner. (You can always make a donation.) We need Aldersgate people to sit with the newcomers to our church to welcome them, to get to know them, and to invite them to church. If you do want to volunteer, check the sign-up sheet each month to see where you are needed.

Mission Share Needs Your Help

Paul Filipiak, the Director of Mission Share Outreach Center on Long Pond Road asked Church Partners to find volunteers to staff a four-hour shift on Saturday on a once-a month or once-a quarter basis. Some churches are creating teams of four that would work together on the same schedule, whether during the regular Tuesday thru Thursday hours or the prospective Saturday hours. The hope is that people will be more likely to work as part of a team. (Aldersgate does not currently have anyone actively working there.) He plans to schedule a training day for volunteers sometime in late March. For more information, call 585-368-0744 or email msocdirector@gmail.com.

Their two major fundraisers for 2017 have been scheduled: The Annual Auction for Saturday, April 22, hosted by First Bible Baptist Church; and the annual Golf Classic Tournament at Ridgemont Country Club on Monday, July 24. Mark those dates on your calendar and plan to participate.

Crossroads Pregnancy Care, service of Mission Share Outreach Center, recently announced the appointment of a new director, Marilyn Raymond. She will be working to continue the development of a network for families in crisis who seek their assistance.

In the meantime, let's all remember our commitment to bringing in feminine hygiene products and toilet paper, two much needed items that really stretch the budgets of most of the Mission Care clients. Every delivery from Aldersgate is gratefully received.

Dear Sally Stewardship

Dear Sally,

You just offered a short course in personal budgeting, and I missed it. Will it be offered again? I think I am managing pretty well, but should I think about taking it?

Wondering

Dear Wondering,

We do have a small “waiting list” of interested people, and those who just completed our recent course offering of “Freed Up Financial Living” endorsed it enthusiastically. Some said they’d consider taking it again. I’ve viewed this course as a facilitator at least three times (this time and in its previous incarnation as “Good Sense Budgeting.”) I don’t necessarily learn anything new after three views, but I do pick up reminders of the importance of strategies I’ve forgotten. I also enjoy the humor with which they deal with the various issues.

“Freed Up Financial Living” is a course presented by Christian personal finance advisors based at Bill Hybels’ Willowcreek Church. One of the first concepts they highlight is the reminder that ALL “our” resources belong to God and are given to us to manage. They urge us to practice Biblical stewardship of those resources by first returning to God ten percent of what we are given. If we haven’t been doing that all along, practicing tithing (giving ten percent) can be a shock to the system. They also recognize that some of us have gotten deeply in debt, whether it is from making up for a too-slim paycheck, accumulating credit card debt, incurring heavy medical debt or student loans, etc. Ten percent may be just too much. Their point is that in good faith we need to start giving something off the top and to work toward ten percent as our situation improves using the other strategies they suggest.

The other early big reminder is that with the second ten percent we should be paying ourselves—start saving for emergencies, for expected replacements of vehicles and appliances, schooling, for retirement, etc. Again, that process may have to start small, but we need a commitment to do that and to grow toward the full ten percent.

Then we have ALL the remaining eighty percent to pay down debt and to cover our day-to-day expenses. Of course, some trimming may be necessary to be sure that those expenses fit into the eighty percent. That’s what the rest of the course is about—addressing many of the traps and myths we find ourselves caught up in, assisting us in deciding what is important and what is not, thinking outside of the box in dealing with emergency expenditures, and so on.

If you are interested, please let us know through the blue sheets on Sunday or tell one of the members of the Stewardship Development Team and watch for further developments. We are committed to serving the Lord and to helping you as best we can.

Serving with joy,
Sally Stewardship

Our Support for UMCOR Saves Lives

The special offering One Great Hour of Sharing on the fourth Sunday in March supports the administrative costs of running the United Methodist Committee on Relief. This offering is important because UMCOR does not receive funds from the general budget of the United Methodist Church for its operations. But because this offering covers those operating costs, your gifts later to specific disaster relief and recovery efforts or to ongoing projects like building fish farms to provide income and protein-rich food, teaching hygiene and basic medical care, or digging wells to supply safe drinking water can go entirely to that cause. Your generous gifts allow us to demonstrate God’s love to hurting people in our own country and around the world.

Plan now for a generous gift on Sunday, March 26, to the One Great Hour of Sharing offering so that this important work continues.
