Live a Life of Faith — May 2023

From the Pastor

We are Easter people. Let us be Eastering.

One of the great Easter hymns which we sang on Easter morning is still ringing in my ears:

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Earth and heaven in chorus say, Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing ye heavens, and earth reply, Alleluia!

I feel the glory, excitement and joy that filled the sanctuary when we sang the hymn. I feel the uplifting power of the trumpet sound. Am I stuck in the past? Are you saying, "Get real. Easter is over. Leave it behind and move on?" Move on to what? Is Easter a one-time event for one day just like the 4th of July?

Easter is not a one-time event like the 4th of July. Easter is not a noun just like celebration. Easter is a verb. So we should be Eastering. What I want to say is, we should live with the spirit and power of Easter day after day. We should live the Easter life.

That's what I see when I read the Gospels about what Jesus did after He rose from the grave. After he rose from the dead, He didn't go to heaven immediately. He stayed on earth for 40 days. During that time, He appeared to His disciples and others again and again.

If the resurrection is only about eternal life, He could have gone into heaven immediately after showing Himself to the disciples. But Jesus wanted His disciples to live the Easter life which is transformation from broken to remade, dead to alive, lost to reinstated, infected to healed, wounded to restored, natural to spiritual. And Jesus who rose from the grave will lead us into the life of transformation.

I hope you have not forgotten that God created the universe. God created life. Would it be hard for Him to recreate? God is master of the new and renewed. Our God is the God of Eastering.

One of the passages in the Bible that I really love is "Fear not." What a powerful message! I hope you hear the risen Christ say, "Fear not! I have overcome the power of death."

We are Easter people. With the risen Christ in us, let us be Eastering.

Miss Rhonda's Book of the Month for May

WORLD OF WONDERS: IN PRAISE OF FIREFLIES, WHALE SHARKS, AND OTHER ASTONISHMENTS by AIMEE NEZHUKUMATATHIL, Milkweed Editions (2020)

From award-winning poet Aimee Nezhukumatathil comes a debut work of nonfiction—a collection of essays about the natural world and the way its inhabitants can teach, support, and inspire us. As a child, Nezhukumatathil called many places home. But no matter where she was transplanted—no matter how awkward the fit or forbidding the landscape—she was able to turn to our world's fierce and funny creatures for guidance. The axolotl teaches us to smile, even in the face of unkindness; the touch-me-not plant shows us how to shake off unwanted advances; the narwhal demonstrates how to survive in hostile environments. Even in the strange and the unlovely, she finds beauty and kinship. Suitable for children. United Women of Faith: Nurturing for Community

Pentecost

Pentecost comes from a Greek word meaning “fiftieth” because it falls on the fiftieth day after the second day of Passover. We know it as the day in which the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples. Pentecost or shavout, “the feast of weeks,” was when the first fruit offerings of the summer wheat were brought into the Temple—and these were the pledge of the greater harvest.

The Passover is a holy day of rest, and marks the beginning of a grain harvest in Israel. This is important symbolically in our faith. Jesus likens the kingdom of heaven to the sowing of seeds and the reaping of the harvest. The seed represents the spreading of the word of God, which takes root in people’s hearts. The wheat harvest represents the result of the spreading of the word: the salvation of many.

Jesus said to his disciples, “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.” (Matthew 9:37, 38). The disciples at Pentecost represented the first fruits of a greater harvest. Being filled with the Spirit, they were then sent out as laborers in the harvest. Because they were faithful so many centuries ago, in due time we also heard the gospel, and believed.

All of us who believe and are saved are filled with the Spirit. The gift of the Holy Spirit empowers us to live a life of holiness and is there to strengthen us in times of weakness, comfort us in times of trouble, nudge us in times of indecision and uncertainty, and so much more. The Spirit brings to remembrance the teachings of Jesus when we need them. There are also gifts that the Spirit has given us. When we put those gifts to use, and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit, God will grow us in many wonderful and unexpected ways. Praise God for the gift of the Holy Spirit!

Thank you to all the youth who shared their musical talents during March and April—Steven, Cyril, Ella, and Molly. It’s a blessing to many, and we all are truly blessed also to see how all of your abilities have grown over the years. Thank you Steven and Cyril for helping with the coffee hour. Thank you also Luke and Ella for helping hide the eggs for the Easter Egg Hunt.

Peace with Justice Sunday - June 4

On June 4th we will celebrate United Methodist Peace with Justice special offering. United Methodists relate to this special Sunday by seeking peaceful solutions, creating and supporting peace-related ministries in their conference and learning about peaceful, just efforts around the world. Our Social Principles call us to love our enemies, seek justice, and serve as reconcilers of conflict. We insist that the first moral duty of all nations is to work together to resolve by peaceful means every dispute that arises between or among them.

The United Methodist Church, with its historic commitment to peace and justice, can and should provide leadership to this social transformation. The General Board of Church and Society Church holds a non-governmental, consultative status with the United Nations. This status allows us to participate in UN meetings, consultations and conferences. We recognize and renew our call for social transformation, for the quest to open the doors of opportunity for all, to distribute resources more equitably, and to provide better care for persons in need.

Hopefully you can join us for in-person worship service that day when special offering envelopes will be provided. Give online at: give.aumcgreece.org. Or as you send in remote donations to Aldersgate UMC, please include a donation for this special offering. Feel free to donate any time in June, being sure to include a notation for "Peace with Justice Sunday."

Thank you in advance for your generous support.

Racing Toward the Finish Line

Four years ago in May 2019, our mortgage balance was $1,037,310.

Then in June 2019, remember how exciting it was when our Mortgage balance dropped below one million? That was such a relief as we were working our way down from a $3.5 million-dollar construction project.

Today, we are down to $374,859! That means we have paid off $661,451 in the past 4 years thanks to very generous giving from the congregation.

We are getting closer and closer to paying off the mortgage. We'd love your support to reach the finish line!!

Successful Crafting Workshop Fundraisers

On April 22, we hosted 24 women for our most recent crafting workshop and raised $945 for the church. The two-day event held back in February brought in the largest group we had ever hosted and raised $2,570. We had 55 participants come to the church for over 20 hours of possible crafting time to work on their various projects, which included scrapbooking, card making, embroidery, diamond dots, sewing and knitting.

We have been hosting crafting workshops at Aldersgate since 2014 with help from Tammy Ruiz the first couple years. Since 2016, Sue and I have handled all the logistics and expenses for hosting these events — collecting registrations, tracking money, setting up and cleaning up the room, creating attendee gifts, shopping for food and supplies, making food, serving meals and cleaning up after them. We donate a lot of time and money to host these events, as 100% of all attendee registrations dollars are donated to Aldersgate. These donations have helped pay bills and fund many projects around the church.

For the past couple events, we have welcomed help setting up and having some food donated. If you are interested in getting involved please reach out to ask how you can help. Our next events will be on August 18 & 19 and November 24.
