Live a Life of Faith — May 2024

From the Pastor

There is an important day in May; that day is Mother's Day. In light of this special day, I find myself pondering a question: "As a mother, how do you want to be remembered by your children?" My mother passed away in 2003 while I was studying at Drew Seminary in New Jersey. It has already been 21 years, yet my memories of her are clear and vivid. I miss her immensely, especially when I have good news and joyful things to share.

I used to call my father weekly and talk with him over the phone before he passed away in 2023. However, our conversations rarely lasted longer than five minutes. Meanwhile, when my wife, Joyce, talks with her mother, their calls can last over an hour, sometimes even two. If I were able to call my mother, I imagine our conversations would last at least half an hour.

Whenever I think of my mother, an image of her praying comes to mind. I saw her in prayer for many years, and her devotion profoundly influenced me. My mother emphasized the importance of prayer when I was in college and seminary. "Hey, son, you must pray a lot if you want to be a good pastor," she would say. Frankly speaking, at that time, I didn't take her advice seriously. I replied, "Mom, I understand what you're saying, but I have a lot of things to do—studying, working... I'll pray a lot later, just not right now."

Even after graduating from seminary and starting my ministry in a local church, I failed to grasp the importance of prayer. I merely tried to apply what I had learned in seminary to my ministry. However, it wasn't effective. Over time, I began to realize that ministry required more than knowledge, experience, or information. I understood the importance of prayer and its power. My mother's advice, "Pray, pray, and pray," began to resonate deeply with me. I understood why my mother prayed so fervently and so often. I now grasp her message and advice for my ministry. My mother showed me how to pray and served as an excellent role model, for which I am thankful to God.

In May, and particularly on Mother's Day, I am especially grateful for my mother, her prayers, and her devout life. "Mom, I miss you."

Need Help for May 11 Craft Workshop

Our periodic fundraising Craft Workshops offer people the chance to “rent” table space so they can work on whatever projects they would like, in the company of fellow crafters. Our next event is May 11 from 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM. There will also be a 2-day workshop on August 9 (12:30-9:00 PM) and August 10 (9:00 AM—9:00 PM).

For May 11, we are looking for volunteers to help with setup and dismantle and to serve meals that day. We could also use some breakfast treats (coffee cake or muffins), desserts or snacks. Contact Karen Sladden or Susan Galligan if you can help out. (Register here to craft along with us.)

Volunteer Opportunities Available

We are blessed to have many people who share their time, talents and gifts to support Worship at Aldersgate. Call the office to offer help or for more details on any of the following opportunities.

Spring Clean-Up Work Day (Date TBA)

Keep on the lookout for a date and time to be announced for the annual spring church work day. Help clean up the church yard or with inside projects, depending on what needs to be done that day.

Monthly Community Dinner

We are in need of people to help prepare and serve the monthly community dinners we provide on the last Saturday of each month. Contact Mary Sim to volunteer.

Security Checker for Saturday Evenings

Trustees are looking for a volunteer who could spend 15-20 minutes on Saturday evenings to walk through the church to make sure the doors are locked and lights turned off.

PowerPoint Slide Creator

We need one more person to help put together PowerPoint slides for our Sunday Services and other special services. If you are familiar with PowerPoint, we can train you to easily create the slides each week. If you are interested, please let Pastor Chun know.

Imagine the Possibilities!

I will open up the windows of heaven for you and pour out a blessing so great you won't have room enough to take it in!
Malachi 3:10

What is this Debt Reduction campaign about?

We are asking for financial commitment to pay off the Mortgage. Good stewardship requires that we manage our debt. Paul admonishes "Pay all your debts except the debt of love for others" (Romans 13:8). While we realize it's not exciting to pay a mortgage, just imagine what it will do for our church to be free of this burden of debt!

We can start and support new ministries, we can expand current ministries, we can focus on repairing and upgrading the church — Imagine the possibilities.

What is the financial goal? How much money do we need in this campaign?

In 2016 we refinanced $1,450,000. By 2019 we had whittled down our debt to $1,037,310 with a payoff date of 12/1/2028. In June of 2022, we owed principal of $519,177 with a payoff date of 9/1/2027. Since that time, we have paid down an additional $90,153 of the principal in addition to our monthly payments. On May 1st we will owe a principal balance of $241,724 with a payoff date of 9/1/2026. Think of it, we are on track to pay off this entire mortgage in 10 years! We have a small reserve in the mortgage account, and so we need to raise $201,269 over the next 28 months in order to pay the debt off.

"Bring all the tithes into the storehouse so that there will be enough food in my Temple; if you do, I will open up the windows of heaven for you and pour out a blessing so great you won't have room enough to take it in!"
(Malachi 3:10)

Just imagine what it will do for our church to be free of this burden of debt!

Why isn't the Mortgage included in the General Operating Budget?

Originally the Building Fund was used as a Capital Campaign to raise the funds for the down payment. It was then understood to be the repayment of the Bonds sold to finance the remaining $2,100,000 of the cost of the building. It has been kept separate since to keep focus on the debt and enable people to make directed contributions to pay down principal. This strategy has enabled us to save hundreds of thousands of dollars in interest over the life of this debt. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart...; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight" (Proverbs 3:5,6). We need all of us to trust God and to express our faith by starting, continuing or increasing our commitment to pay this debt in order to make a difference in the life of the church and the community around us.

If I only have a certain amount to give, how do I choose between the general operational budget and the debt reduction campaign?

The bottom line is, that in order to operate, our church needs the financial support of every member. We do not want to take away from the amount already contributed to the general budget. We are praying for every member to contribute something. It could be large or small. Every gift matters. Together we can imagine a debt-free future and possibilities for our church ministries. "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21).

Pledge Commitments will be received during the worship services on May 5, 2024. Pledges can also be mailed or emailed to the Office, or brought to church at any time. Thank you for supporting our church!

The Good for Nothing Tree by Amy-Jill Levine and Sandy Eisenberg Sasso, inspired by the parable of the Barren Fig Tree, reminds us that the sweetest figs, like so many other things are worth the wait. After waiting through all four seasons, and no figs for this tiny tree, it seems that this tiny fig tree is good for nothing! This story reminds us that with patience, care, and love, we can grow into something special! United Women of Faith for Spiritual Growth

We will start growing a fig tree this month, and maybe eat a Fig Newton or two while watching it grow.

Pentecost

Pentecost falls on the fiftieth day after the second day of Passover. It is the day in which the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples. Pentecost or shavout, “the feast of weeks,” was when the firstfruit offerings of the summer wheat were brought into the Temple—and these were the pledge of the greater harvest.

The Passover is a holy day of rest and is the beginning of a grain harvest in Israel. Jesus likens the kingdom of heaven to the sowing of seeds and the reaping of the harvest. The seed represents the spreading of the word of God and the harvest represents the salvation of many.

The disciples at Pentecost represent the firstfruits of a greater harvest. The gift of the Holy Spirit empowers us to live a life of holiness and is there to strengthen us, comfort us, nudge us in times of indecision and uncertainty, and so much more. When we put the gifts and fruit of the Spirit, God will grow us in many wonderful and unexpected ways. Praise God for the gift of the Holy Spirit! Thank you also Luke and Ella for helping hide the eggs for the Easter Egg Hunt, and to Molly for sorting the candy for the Shut-In Easter Baskets.

Reading Circle – May 9 at 1:30 PM

(2nd Thursday of the month)

Tracy Chevalier's A Single Thread is the book that we will discuss.

1932 — After the Great War took both her beloved brother and her fiancé, Violet Speedwell has become a “surplus woman,” one of a generation doomed to a life of spinsterhood after the war killed so many young men. Yet Violet cannot reconcile herself to a life spent caring for her grieving, embittered mother. After countless meals of boiled eggs and dry toast, she saves enough to move out of her mother's place and into the town of Winchester, home to one of England's grandest cathedrals. There, Violet is drawn into a society of broderers — women who embroider kneelers for the Cathedral, carrying on a centuries-long tradition of bringing comfort to worshippers.

Violet finds support and community in the group, fulfillment in the work they create, and even a growing friendship with the vivacious Gilda. But when forces threaten her new independence and another war appears on the horizon, Violet must fight to put down roots in a place where women aren't expected to grow. Told in Chevalier's glorious prose, A Single Thread is a timeless story of friendship, love, and a woman crafting her own life.
